

WORLD OF RADIO #997, produced July 21, 1999 by Glenn Hauser

- *Don't delay if you want to send us a cassette for airing on WOR 1000 which may air the week of August 18 or 25
- *New Continent of Media 99-05 now produced; should be available by late July or early August from RFPI and <http://www.DXing.com> includes recordings of Climax TIS, CBL closedown
- *Libya's English broadcast
- *Sudan and Eritrea still clandestine to each other around 8 MHz
- *Somalia logs in the upper 6 MHz band
- *Irony if I electrocute myself in the shower
- *Spain's program for mariners originates in Canary Islands
- *Portugal's African service on 13m goes and comes; nice music
- *SW Relay Service, Europe on different 13m frequency; heard in NZ
- *AFN Frankfurt may move, but not this year
- *R. Belarus International English schedule
- *Monitor cruise ship webcams, such as Grand Princess:
http://www.princess.com/fleet/grand/bridge_cam.html
- *Royal Tournament July 20-August 2, Air Training Corps specials on utility, ham bands from England
- *BBC Monitoring 60th anniversary website:
<http://ds.dial.pipex.com/bbcfsu>
- *In the midst of WOR 997, P O Box 1684, Enid, OK 73702, USA or wghauser@yahoo.com or fax if really necessary 1-580-233-2948 attn Hauser. See our website <https://www.angelfire.com/ok/worldofradio>
- *Sample and subscribe to Review of International Broadcasting online; info from wghauser@yahoo.com but don't be anonymous
- *BBC to get hefty increase in licence fee, for digital TV owners
- *Rumored for number two position at BBC: Jenny Abramsky
- *BBCWS late July/early August previews: Back from the Edge; Block on Block; Spinning Yarns
- *VNG Aussie timesignal again endangered. Send support to VNG Users Consortium, GPO Box 1090, Canberra ACT 2601, Australia
- *Maoris win ownership of New Zealand radio spectrum
- *RNB Brazil external services missing; president "extinguished" RadioBras
- *RFPI Global Community Forum live call-in this week on "What is Pacifica coming to?" UT Friday July 23 at 0200 plus several repeats
- *Lister Sinclair's replacement as CBC Ideas host
- *CBC's likely new head
- *As It Happens curtailed three days a week; what fills the half-hours
- *Randi Steele denies last week's Cumbre report
- *WGTV welcomes American Dissident Voices, neo-Nazi program
- *Anti-Christ program website still exists: <http://www.AntiChrist.com>
- *AWR Wavescan found on WRMI's new 7465; nothing else worth hearing
- *Correxion to last week's AFRTS frequencies: 6458.5, 4278.5
- *Set up your own classical translator with WCPE's help. Contact signal@wcpe.org
- *CQ magazine editor K2EEK dies

*Propagation outlook from Boulder July 20: flux peak 200

*Standard disclaimer

*"That's the way the world spins"

*Join me again next week for World of Radio; this was 997

###